DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Suzuki (US 2002/0060704).

Suzuki discloses the following claimed limitations:

Claim 19: an ink-jet printhead, comprising:

a manifold (44 in figs. 2A-3B) on a substrate;

a barrier layer (10 in figs. 2A-3B) on the substrate;

a nozzle plate on the barrier layer (34 in figs. 2A-3B), the nozzle plate including a nozzle (32 in figs. 2A-3B);

an ink chamber (16 in figs. 2A-3B) between the barrier layer and the nozzle plate;

an ink channel (48 in figs. 2A-3B) on the barrier layer and in communication with the ink chamber and the manifold;

a volumetric structure (50), in communication with an ink flow (as seen in figs. 2A-3B), the volumetric structure being sensitive to an external stimulus

Art Unit: 2861

(voltage) and being capable of varying in size (expands) to eject the ink droplet through the nozzle (32; paragraph 0019); and a stimulus generator (70 in fig.6), which applies a stimulus to the volumetric structure to vary a size of the volumetric structure (paragraph 0022).

Claim 20: wherein the volumetric structure (50) expands in size to eject the ink droplet through the nozzle (32), and the stimulus generator (70) applies the stimulus to the volumetric structure to expand the size of the volumetric structure (paragraph 0019).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-8 and 36-40 allowed.
4. Claims 21-26 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The primary reason for allowance for claims 1-8 and 36-40 is the inclusion of the limitations of a droplet ejector that includes a volumetric structure having a predetermined volumetric size, the predetermined volumetric size being contained entirely within the fluid path, the volumetric structure being sensitive to an external stimulus and being capable of varying the predetermined volumetric size in at least two directions simultaneously to eject a droplet of the fluid through the nozzle. It is this limitation found in the claims, as it is claimed in the combination of that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for indicating allowable subject matter for claim 21-26 is the inclusion of the limitations of a droplet ejector that includes a volumetric structure that is formed of stimulus sensitive hydrogel. It is this limitation found in the claims, as it is claimed in the combination of that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
